

BANK ISLAM LAUNCHES SHARIAH-COMPLIANT WILL-WRITING ON BIMB MOBILE

First-of-its-kind service simplifies estate planning through mobile banking

KUALA LUMPUR, Wednesday, [8 April 2026]: Bank Islam Malaysia Berhad (Bank Islam or the Bank), in collaboration with Amanah Warisan Berhad (AWARIS), today unveiled the AWARIS Will-Writing service via BIMB Mobile, making it the first Malaysian bank to offer will writing services through a mobile banking application.

This initiative marks a significant step in the Bank's mission to modernise wealth management services by embedding essential advisory and legacy planning services into digital platforms. The new will-writing feature integrates directly into the BIMB Mobile app, in line with Bank Islam's stringent data security and Shariah governance standards.

Bank Islam Director of Wealth Management, Datin Zaharah Abdul Muttalib, said the launch reflects the Bank's continued commitment to improving accessibility and convenience in Shariah-compliant financial solutions.

"Through this launch, Bank Islam aims to encourage the digital adoption of estate planning, strengthen public awareness on the importance of will-writing, and reinforce our position as a pioneer in Shariah-compliant digital wealth management solutions.

"The AWARIS Will-Writing service is a key component of our broader strategy to expand end-to-end Islamic wealth management offerings. Its integration into BIMB Mobile enables customers to manage their financial and legacy planning conveniently, anytime, and anywhere," she said.

Unveiled during Premier Wealth Client Appreciation Day, the launch provided an opportunity to engage valued clients while demonstrating the Bank's continued innovation in digital services and estate planning.

Zaharah added that Bank Islam will continue strengthening its strategic partnership with AWARIS to deliver comprehensive and Shariah-compliant estate planning solutions.

"We believe that the combined expertise and strong synergy between Bank Islam and AWARIS will further enhance our wealth management portfolio and deliver greater value to our customers. As we advance the adoption of Shariah-compliant digital solutions, we will continue exploring new opportunities and potential markets to support societal well-being and empower communities through inclusive, accessible, and secure financial solutions," she said.

AWARIS Chief Executive Officer & Managing Director, Prof. Dato' Ahmad Saruji Abdul Aziz, said the integration of AWARIS's will-writing capabilities into the BIMB Mobile platform represents a transformative step for the Malaysian digital estate planning landscape.

"Our collaboration with Bank Islam is driven by a shared vision to make Shariah-compliant legacy planning more accessible and intuitive. By moving these essential services into a digital-first environment, we empower individuals to secure their family's future with greater ease, speed, and transparency. Responsible wealth distribution and legacy planning are critical pillars of overall financial well-being. This partnership reaffirms our commitment to innovation and financial inclusion, ensuring every Bank Islam customer has the tools they need to manage their Wasiat with peace of mind. We are honoured to be part of this milestone launch and look forward to fostering a proactive culture of estate planning through this seamless digital experience," he said.

Beginning 8 April 2026, the AWARIS Will-Writing service is available to all Bank Islam customers under the Service Hub in the BIMB Mobile app. Designed for convenience and compliance, the platform allows customers to prepare their wills securely and in accordance with Shariah principles.

To encourage adoption, Bank Islam is offering a special promotional price of RM300 for the Platinum Plan, exclusively via BIMB Mobile. The first 250 customers who complete their application will also receive a RM40 Touch 'n Go eWallet voucher.
