BANK ISLAM OFFERS MORATORIUM FOR FLOOD VICTIMS

Financing repayment flexibility provided to customers of House Financing, Personal Financing and Vehicle Financing facilities

KUALA LUMPUR, Friday, [8 January 2021]: Concerned for those badly affected by floods, Bank Islam Malaysia Berhad ("Bank Islam") today offers Prihatin Programme to assist affected financing customers. This programme aims to ease flood victims' financial burden, customers under the Bank Islam House Financing, Personal Financing and Vehicle Financing facilities. Eligible customers can apply for a moratorium of up to six(6) months to pay their monthly commitment subject to the conditions set.

Bank Islam's Chief Executive Officer, Mohd Muazzam Mohamed said, "Bank Islam is keeping abreast with the latest news on the flooding situation at all affected areas, and will be taking proactive actions in helping its affected customers."

"We are aware of the difficulties experienced by our customers in dealing with the current situation, especially with the severe flood situation and the COVID-19 pandemic that is still plaguing the country. The wellbeing of the communities has always been one of Bank Islam's main priorities. Therefore, we hope that this programme could help relieve their anxieties over their financial commitment during this difficult period" he added.

Customers may call the Bank Islam Contact Centre at 03 2690 0900 for any information on Bank Islam's 'Prihatin Programme'. Applications for the moratorium under this programme can be made at the nearest Bank Islam branches.
