Negotiable Islamic Debt Certificate (NIDC)

Date: 10 August 2023

1. What is this product about?

Brief Product Information

Negotiable Islamic Debt Certificate (NIDC) is a deposit product and negotiable instrument at secondary market with certain maturity from the date of issuance. NIDC refers to a sum of money deposited with the Bank and payable to the bearer on a specified future date at the nominal value of the NIDC. The customer will receive the selling price amount (principal plus profit) if the NIDC is held to maturity. This product is NOT covered by the Malaysia Deposit Insurance Corporation (PIDM) due to its negotiable features.

2. What is the Shariah concept applicable?

- The applicable Shariah contract for NIDC upon issuance is Bai` `Inah where:
 - i. The Bank sells its asset to the customer on cash basis, and subsequently,
 - ii. The Bank purchases the same asset from the customer on deferred at mark-up price.
- After completion of the Bai` `Inah transactions, the Bank will issue the NIDC to the customer as evidence of the Bank's debt.

3. What do I get from this product?

Minimum Deposit Placement

Minimum amount of RM60,001.00 or its equivalent if the NIDC is denominated in foreign currency.

6. What are the key risks associated with this product?

The Bank will apply risk management controls over portfolio, legal and operational activities; including asset allocation, liquidity adherence to investment objective and parameters, valuation, monitoring performance, Shariah compliance and others. Notwithstanding the above, in times of adversity in the markets, the Bank may manage its asset allocation to safeguard the investment portfolio provided that such investment is within the investment objectives of the fund.

As such, you are advised to carefully consider all risk factors before making an investment decision. Among the risks associated with NIDC include but not limited to the following:

- (a) Market Risk: refers to the potential impact of adverse price movements (e.g. profit rate, foreign exchange rates or equity prices, where applicable) on the economic value of an asset.
- (b) Credit Risk: refers to the potential that the Issuer of NIDC fails to meet its obligations in accordance with agreed terms and conditions.
- (c) Operational Risk: refers to the potential loss resulting from inadequate or failed internal processes, people and systems or external events.
- (d) Liquidity Risk: refers to the potential inability of the Bank to meet short term withdrawal demands from the Customer.
- (e) Legal Risk: The Customer should ensure that, in entering into this investment it is not in breach of any laws, regulations, contractual or any other legal limitations that may apply to investors. This investment is issued subject to all applicable laws, regulations and guidelines. In the event of change in such laws, regulations or guidelines, Bank Islam may be obliged to change some or all the terms and conditions of the investment, including the possibility of an early termination.
- (f) Shariah Non-Compliance Risk: refers to the possible failures to comply with the rulings of BNM's Shariah Advisory Council (SAC) and standards on Shariah matters issued by BNM or decisions or advice of Bank Islam's Shariah Supervisory Council.

7. What do I need to do if there are changes to my contact details?

It is important to inform the Bank on any changes in the customer's personal details to ensure that all correspondences reach in a timely manner.
