Please be sure to also read the general terms and conditions.

Takaful myPlus PA

Date: 1 March 2019

1. What is this plan about?

This plan provides comprehensive personal accident protection to the person covered for events caused by accidental means resulting directly and independently of any other cause especially during preparations for Hajj or Umrah.

2. What are the Shariah concepts applicable?

This plan applies the Shariah concepts of Wakalah and Tabarru'. Wakalah is a contract where the participant appoints the Takaful Operator to carry out transactions on the participant's behalf to invest and manage the contribution in the General Takaful Fund (hereinafter referred to as "GTF") in accordance with the Shariah. As a return, the participant allows the Takaful Operator to deduct a certain amount as a wakalah fee (commonly known as administration fees) for the services rendered.

Contribution less wakalah fee will be credited to the GTF as Tabarru' (a.k.a cost of insurance in conventional insurance).

Tabarru' means a donation for the purpose of which is not commercial and is used to help other participants in times of misfortune for the purpose of solidarity, brotherhood and cooperation among the participants.

Any surplus arising from the GTF as determined by Us will apply to settle any Qardh (an interest free loan) owing to Us. Any residual of the calculated surplus after making all the above payments will then be kept in the GTF to prepare and provide for any unfavourable claims experience.

For avoidance of doubt, this plan is not entitled for the cash back payment.

6. What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

Some of the key terms and conditions that you should be aware of are:

- Duty of disclosure - Pursuant to Paragraph 5 of Schedule 9 of the Islamic Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this plan wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make any misrepresentation in answering the questions in the proposal form (or when you apply for this plan). You must answer the questions fully and accurately. Failure to take reasonable care in answering the questions may result in voidance of your contract of Takaful, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of the terms or termination of your contract of Takaful. The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of Takaful is entered into, varied or renewed with us. In addition to answering the questions in the proposal form (or when you apply for this plan), you are required to disclose any other matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied. You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of Takaful has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information provided in the proposal form (or when you applied for this plan) is inaccurate or has changed.
- You may cancel this plan by returning the certificate within fifteen (15) calendar days free-look period after the certificate has been received by you. The contributions that you have paid will be refunded to you.
- Your coverage is effective upon issuance of the certificate and when the contribution is paid.
- Grace period - You will have sixty (60) days from the contribution due date (inclusive) to pay each contribution due. If the contribution is not paid at the end of the grace period, your certificate will lapse and the person(s) covered will not have any takaful cover, benefit or value.
- If an accident occurs which gives rise to a claim, you shall notify us immediately.
- Certificate renewals up to 70 years old and renewal contributions are not guaranteed.
- For children, the coverage will be terminated upon attaining the age of eighteen (18) years or twenty three (23) years if registered as a full-time student at a recognized educational institution and is not gainfully employed.
